THIS WRIT PETITION (CIVIL) HAVING COME UP FOR ADMISSION ON 19/07/2007, THE COURT ON THE SAME DAY DELIVERED THE FOLLOWING:

A.K. BASHEER, J.

W.P.(C). NO. 19195 OF 2007

Dated this the 19th day of July, 2007

J U D G M E N T

The grievance highlighted by the petitioner in this writ petition has been redressed in view of the submission made by the learned Government Pleader after getting instructions.

2. He submits that the salary payable to the petitioner for the period from July 24, 2000 to July 14, 2001 could not be disbursed to her since in view of the order of the Government interdicting the Department from disbursing the salary during that particular period. It was directed by the Government that such arrears shall be credited to the Provident Fund Account of the employee concerned. Learned Government Pleader submits that the Department has no objection in crediting the amount payable to the petitioner to her PF Account.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner invites my attention to Ext.P5 application submitted by the petitioner before respondent No.2, in which she has requested the officer concerned to credit the salary for the period mentioned above to her PF Account with interest.

4. As regards the claim for approval of the appointment of petitioner from July 15, 2001 to October 31, 2003, it is made clear that I have not considered the said plea in this writ petition. It will be open to the petitioner to pursue the statutory remedy available to her under law.

Therefore the writ petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent No.2 to pass appropriate orders on Ext.P5 in accordance with law, as expeditiously as possible, at any rate within one month from the date of receipt of a copy of this judgment.
